114. The judgment, assessment and report of the two persons hereinbefore provided for, to be appointed by the justice of the peace, shall in no case be taken and held to be conclusive and final; but either party on trial shall be at liberty and have the right to produce witnesses to maintain or controvert all matters at issue in the case; and the court, before which the case is to be determined, shall give such judgment, upon all the evidence, as may seem right and proper; and nothing in this sub-title of this article contained shall be taken or considered as giving jurisdiction to any justice of the peace to hear and determine any cause wherein the title of land is concerned.

1888, ch. 125. .

115. The provisions of the seven preceding sections shall not apply to that part of Tangier district which comprises Deal's island, as the same is now surrounded by water.

FISH.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 58.

116. No person shall stake out or fix any seine across the river Wicomico, in Somerset county, or aid therein, by which fish may be obstructed in going up or coming down said river.

Ibid. sec. 59.

117. Any person offending against the provisions of the preceding section shall, for every offence, forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by action or indictment in the circuit court for the county where the offender shall be apprehended or resides, one half to the informer and the other half to the county.

Ibid. sec. 62.

118. Any person may destroy or remove any seine staked or fixed across said river to obstruct the passage of fish, and if he be sued therefor, he may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence.
